Who Believes

Romans 10:16* But they have not all obeyed the gospel. For Esaias saith, Lord, who hath believed our report?

It is frustrating when a few believe what the Holy Spirit is giving you to share IS actually from God, and not something you dreamed up after eating a bunch of bad food. The closer the friend, the more confusing it is as to why they will not believe the gospel and your report. Thats the way it was with Jesus, UNTIL they knew he was raised from the dead and then only a few per capita.

Mark 4:16-19 And these are they likewise which are sown on stony ground; who, when they have heard the word, immediately receive it with gladness; And have no root in themselves, and so endure but for a time: afterward, when affliction or persecution ariseth for the word's sake, immediately they are offended. And these are they which are sown among thorns; such as hear the word, And the cares of this world, and the deceitfulness of riches, and the lusts of other things entering in, choke the word, and it becometh unfruitful.

Most believers that were added to the church was because of some kind of miracle or Devine intervention.

Acts 2:7-8 And they were all amazed and marvelled, saying one to another, Behold, are not all these which speak Galilaeans?

And how hear we every man in our own tongue, wherein we were born?

Verse 12 & 13 And they were all amazed, and were in doubt, saying one to another, What meaneth this? Others mocking said, These men are full of new wine.

There are always more mockers than believers. In my own life

I will share just a few of these types of incidents. My Dad who was just over 70, had a heart attack and the hospital said he wouldn't make it, We rushed to the hospital and when I walked into where he was, the thought (Holy Spirit) kept saying: "claim a new heart", So I walked up and laid hands on him and said very assertively "in Jesus Name I claim a new heart for Dad". The medical staff wrote it off as a religious nut that was under grief stress, this was as far from the truth as possible. I had such inner peace and was rejoicing and said he will be OK now. I left then and the next morning they phoned mom and said: "we don't know what happened but all his vital signs kept improving all night and now we can't find anything wrong with him and he wants to go home". Never the less, they kept him in till that afternoon doing all kinds of tests and his heart was 100%. He lived for some years after that and died of lung cancer, and the nurse said he should of died hours ago, but his heart was to strong and would't quit. (what a testimony in itself)

My daughter had scleroses of the liver for some years and her liver quit and all her other organs shut down, they said it was only a matter of hours, maybe at the most a couple of days. She lived in another province and being disabled I was unable to go to be with her, so I just prayed and praised God. At 2:30 am, God woke me with a start and said very loudly in my spirit: "Claim a new liver for Lori" which I did and had such peace I went back to sleep and slept like a baby. In the morning I phoned and she had a friend that didn't believe in Gods power today, Lori could not even speak so I ask the friend if they would just hold the phone to her ear. I told her what the Lord said and assured her all would be well. To shorten the story, three days later she checked herself out of the hospital and went home, within a month she was back at work. For the skeptics, she has had tests over the last few years and she is healthy.

When I have shared this with my friend, they believed that I was fabricating a lot of it and the liver will regenerate itself if taken care of. My question to them, is will it regenerate in three days???

I had a bladder control problem and the Dr gave me some pills that controlled it to a point, I was on these for a few years and I hate relying on man. I had ask the Lord how come I can receive anything from you that the Holy Spirit says to do, yet I seem to have a hard time just going by faith. Some days latter not thinking of bladder or anything, The holy Spirit said: "claim a new bladder", I didn't hesitate but said: "oh OK" and claimed a new bladder. I quit the pills and went from going every couple hours on the pill to four hours without. Now I had tried going without taking the pill and I would go every half hour. So you see I know God gave me a new bladder, I go normal now.

My skeptic friends who know exactly the problem I was having figures the pills fixed the problem. My question again to them, is how come within three days from trying without the pill (to no avail) To complete deliverance after obeying the Holy Spirit ???

Now there are many other times the Lord has told me to claim something for myself as well as other people, some have believed me and received deliverance as well as excepting Jesus into there life. THEN there has been believers that you tell them that God gave the assurance that he has intervened and healed them. They are like my skeptic friend saying: "God made Drs so you have to verify it through them.

James 1:8* A double minded man is unstable in all his ways.

Faith does not operate by your five natural sense

1-smell, 2-taste, 3-hear, 4- touch 5 -and emotionally FEEL

Faith operates in your sixth sense

1/ believe what God says over man

Acts 4:18-20 And they called them, and commanded them not to speak at all nor teach in the name of Jesus.

But Peter and John answered and said unto them, Whether it be right in the sight of God to hearken unto you more than unto God, judge ye.

For we cannot but speak the things which we have seen and heard.
