Jesus Never Fails

Jesus Hates the Sin, but Loves the Sinner. This is a statement that the ungodly cannot understand, they think, that if he loves me, there is no way he would send me to HELL.

John 3:16* For God so loved the world, that he gave his only begotten Son, that whosoever believeth in him should not perish, but have everlasting life.

Anybody that has ever been to Sunday school knows this verse, but very few people really understand what it means. OH SURE they might say yes Jesus died on the cross but it is a head knowledge only, if you really know the love of God, you can't help but show the love of God. There is also a stipulation in this verse, just like a natural birth you enter in to this earth a new being but with a sin nature that needs a savior, without, you have everlasting separation from God in Hell.

Likewise if you really believe in Jesus, you are born again, your spirit that HAD a sin nature is now Holy and The Holy Spirit now lives there (Now I want you to realizes that God and Sin cannot live together.) and you have everlasting life with Jesus.

Romans 10:13* For whosoever shall call upon the name of the Lord shall be saved. (what part of shall do you not understand?)

You have to acknowledge you have a need for a saviour, your parents or friends cannot do it for you as much as they probably want to. When you except the price Jesus paid for you, the bible says you become a new creature in Christ Jesus.

2Corinthians 5:17* Therefore if any man be in Christ, he is a new creature: old things are passed away; behold, all things are become new.

John 5:14* Afterward Jesus findeth him in the temple, and said unto him, Behold, thou art made whole: sin no more, lest a worse thing come unto thee.

Ephesians 4:28* Let him that stole steal no more: but rather let him labour, working with his hands the thing which is good, that he may have to give to him that needeth.

If you were sincere about salvation, you can't help but talk about it and people can't help but see there is a change in your life. It is not something you do, or have to give up it is your desires that change. God places these desires within you, now you have the choice to go with these desires or reject them. One of the desires that comes, is to read his word and I do not mean a verse here and there or occasionally.

Through the scriptures is the MAIN way he teaches and talks to us. You say, God has never spoke to you, I SAY you have never ask God to open his word to you and speak to you.

James 1:5* If any of you lack wisdom, let him ask of God, that giveth to all men liberally, and upbraideth not; and it shall be given him.

Matthew 11:29* Take my yoke upon you, and learn of me; for I am meek and lowly in heart: and ye shall find rest unto your souls.

2Peter 1:3* According as his divine power hath given unto us all things that pertain unto life and godliness, through the knowledge of him that hath called us to glory and virtue:

Matthew 21:22* And all things, whatsoever ye shall ask in prayer, believing, ye shall receive.

We are to learn of god, but how can we ever learn if we don't ask questions ( of God or true Christians NOT your local denomination for they probably know less than you do).

You see, we are children of the most high God and his promises are for all that will serve him and trust him.

Hebrews 11:6* But without faith it is impossible to please him: for he that cometh to God must believe that he is, and that he is a rewarder of them that diligently seek him.

I have said it before but the greatest thing the ungodly people want is what every Christian has," inner peace." He can, but does not necessarily keep you from tribulations, but will go with you through the problem and his peace will never leave you. All you do is trust him, no stress, no fear, no anxiety nor whatever else the devil or the world tries to throw at you.

John 14:27* Peace I leave with you, my peace I give unto you: not as the world giveth, give I unto you. Let not your heart be troubled, neither let it be afraid.

The really sad part about professing Christians, is that most of them do not know for sure where their going when they die, Heaven or Hell. Most denominations say we can only hope, you mean to tell me if I ask you if you know Jesus, you would say I'm not sure. Well if your not sure then you don't know him and if you don't know him then unfortunetly you have a place reserved for you, YOU CAN KNOW FOR SURE, you see Jesus NEVER FAILS his word is true, it's better than money in the bank.
