

Divorce - something to think about

These first, are meant to be jokes, but they are so true to life.

=====

She married him because he was such a "strong man"
She divorced him because he was such a "dominating male."

He married her because she was so "fragile and petite."
He divorced her because she was so "weak and helpless."

She married him because "he knows how to provide a good living."
She divorced him because "all he thinks about is business."

He married her because "she reminds me of my mother."
He divorced her because "she's getting more like her mother every day."

She married him because he was "happy and romantic."
She divorced him because he was "shiftless and fun-loving."

He married her because she was "steady and sensible."
He divorced her because she was "boring and dull."

She married him because he was "the life of the party."
She divorced him because "he never wants to come home from a party."

We have a tendency to forget why we fell in love with the person we are married too, we can blame society and there may be some merit to that. But we still have the choice to go along with the norm; or we can look at why we chose our spouse in the first place.

The biggest factor in our delusion is:

Soon after the wedding vows are made we seem to want to change our spouse into what we think we want and when/if this happens, we don't like them.

WHY ? They are not what we fell in love with !!

When this happens, he or she will start looking elsewhere and if not looking, Satan will bring someone that will say and do the things that will feed our ego.

Thus you have an affair, or at least an emotional affair. One is just as big a sin as the other.

Matthew 5:28 But I say unto you, That whosoever looketh on a woman to lust after her hath committed adultery with her already in his heart.

As born again Christians Divorce - is not an option. We are to be long suffering and forgiving, and love and work at our marriage as the below scripture points out.

Ephesians 5:25 Husbands, love your wives, even as Christ also loved the church, and gave himself for it;
1Peter 3:1 Likewise, ye wives, be in subjection to your own husbands; that, if any obey not the word, they also may without the word be won by the conversation of the wives;

Only as a last resort is divorce to be considered, and that is if your spouse continually beats on you or consistently has affairs. Thats He, or She.

Mark 10:11&12 And he saith unto them, Whosoever shall put away his wife, and marry another, committeth adultery against her.

And if a woman shall put away her husband, and be married to another, she committeth adultery.

The norm nowadays is to split the minute things aren't like they were when you were going together. There is no commitment and were so concerned about our emotional feelings.

A husband visited a marriage counselor and said, "When we were first married, I would come home from the office, my wife would bring my slippers and our cute little dog would run around barking. Now after ten years it's all different. I come home, the dog brings the slippers and my wife runs around barking."

"Why complain?" said the counselor, "You're still getting the same service."

Trust this sheds a little light on the subject
