

#237

Daily Living

I realize you must be frustrated, not getting a paycheck yet and learning new things. And it seems that you are concerned about how you are going to make ends meet
I used to think that if you didn't please God, he would bring some kind of retribution upon you, but of course it was always in a Godly love (but it was still unpleasant). NOT TRUE

You see Jesus took ALL the wrath or anger of God the father upon himself at the cross, so you see the moods of the old testament God are no longer (till the 7 year tribulation period).

All the father see's is his son Jesus that fulfilled the law perfectly, you say why do bad things happen? Well, Satan is still in this world and those that in ignorance, serve the carnal nature the devil isn't to worried about them. He just basically maintains his dominion over them. Those of us that have put on Christ, the devil has NO authority or power over us, unless we continue to do things the Holy Spirit is trying to correct us of. If we refuse to listen to the Holy Spirit, WE THEN OPEN THE DOOR for satan to afflict us, but if we repent then God will CLOSE the door on our behalf. You see, once we understand the GRACE of God, I mean really understand it is when we first start to enjoy what Jesus PAID THE PRICE FOR.

God does not judge nor condemn me. So you see I, was self righteous when I used to do the religious thing against my family and others.

Out and out sin we know and keeping quite about it is also sin.
(Gal 6:1)

EXAMPLE:

If we know God has delivered and healed someone from an addiction, and they for some reason go back to that, then the bible says we are to go to them. NOT in condemnation, but in love, help them to see their mistake, and if they will honestly look at their situation and refrain from Satan's temptations, you have helped and gained a brother or sister in Christ.

If they get upset or won't listen, then things will continue to go downhill for them. YOU SEE, when you continue to believe the devils lies, it only separates you further from the Lords Grace.

Guessing as to motives makes us self righteous, taking offense by what others say is also self righteous. You see this the hard part to understand and lay aside because our upbringing has infused it in our mind the world revolves around US.

Now don't take me wrong, we all form opinions BUT it's what we do with those opinions. Some help to govern our life, others should be left with Jesus as they may destroy our life. Just remember what Jesus said.

John 10:10* The thief cometh not, but for to steal, and to kill, and to destroy: I am come that they might have life, and that they might have it more abundantly.

--- Abundant life is Health, Peace, Joy, Financial independence and in general – Well Being.

3John 2* Beloved, I wish above all things that thou mayest prosper and be in health, even as thy soul prospereth.

When you draw close to the Lord and sense his presence and peace, this is the same sense of prosperity he wants in our every day life.

John 14:14 If ye shall ask any thing in my name, I will do it.

Do you think he is saying this to hear himself talk, of course not. Anything, is anything that is not harmful to you or your walk with him.

But, the very next verse says, "If you love me, keep my commandments." In other words, If the Lord has helped us overcome a sickness or an emotional problem, to turn back to that very same scenario, is a slap in Gods face. But if we see the error of our actions, HE WILL forgive us as if it never happened IF we ask him.

Just remember tho, there is the law of nature that says you will reap what you sow. An example for this, is, if you smoke – you may get lung cancer, if you are Promiscuous – you may get syphilis or aids. or if your a secret drinker, "Get the Point"

Luke 6:38* Give, and it shall be given unto you; good measure, pressed down, and shaken together, and running over, shall men give into your bosom. For with the same measure that ye mete withal it shall be measured to you again.

Now the religious order teaches the old testament law of giving 10 % to God, the new testament teaches to put God first (Mt 6:33) You will be rewarded with the same measure you give. Now I want you to realize that this IS NOT just talking about money, it's also talking about honesty, your time and your effort. Your effort means an awful lot to God, you see, the effort comes from the HEART. Man can only see the results of your effort, God sees the FULL result of your effort.

Since I started tithing (money) 43 years ago, I went from always being a bit short, to things always working out, to having a surplus.

There have been times that I was forgiven money I owed, money was given me, to where I always have more than enough. As God increased my living, so I increased my Giving, and I'm not only talking about money. You cannot out give God especially if it's given with pure intentions.

Had no intentions of writing a news letter.

Bro. Ken New Stuff <http://burningbushcrusades.com/>