The Devil Owns the Fence

Revelation 3:16* So then because thou art lukewarm, and neither cold nor hot, I will spue (vomit) thee out of my mouth.

In other words, the Lord hates those that are wishy washy. You know, don't rock the boat, political correctness, don't offend anybody. Even if you know what your not saying is not right in God's eyes. Isn't it amazing how all those that are led by their God, the Spirit of antichrist propagates this as the way of the new age life, and it is not only acceptable but demanded that we reject anything to do with Jesus or the cross of Calvary.

You can proclaim and worship (Buddha, Allah, and so on) any false God, as long as it has nothing to do with Jesus, (Jesus was a Jew) the cross, or redemption to the Father.

Jesus foretold of this in Matthew 24:1-8 Then Matthew 24: 9-13 tells of the time after the Rapture or snatching away of his church, when the Lord himself will come in the clouds to catch up his church out of this world so that Satan can have free rule on this EARTH for SEVEN YEARS. 1Thessalonians 4:13-17 and Revelation 3:10 Because thou hast kept the word of my patience, I also will keep thee from the hour of temptation, which shall come upon all the world, to try them that dwell upon the earth.

Man is an extremist, those that are ruled by their emotions will ALWAYS go to extremes. Whatever makes them FEEL good, must be the right thing, whether right or wrong, there is no happy medium. What does the bible say about this?

Philippians 4:5* Let your moderation be known unto all men. The Lord is at hand.

When I was a young lad, my religious upbringing leaned heavily towards the Law. An example: the pool hall or shooting a game of pool would send you straight to Hell, or playing a game of crib or any game played with cards. Yet the ones that called it sin could play snakes & ladders or chinese checkers, which were played with dice. This threw their theory about, "You can't use the devils tools to entertain yourself." right out the window. (Gee, I always thought dice were used to shoot crap), for you's that don't know, crap is a dice game that is highly preferred in the gambling communities.

In this day and age, the upbringing has gone totally to the other extreme, you know, if it feels good, DO IT. Don't worry about God, we are under his love and Grace you know. You don't have to worry anymore about failing in school, that would be discrimination you know, the elite, say, "We need to spend a few more billion on education," you know, useless things so they can feel better about themselves.

Why has the quality of our morals and standards fallen to an unprecedented low? It is because us deciples of Jesus have been wrapped up with sitting or straddling the fence, that when the ungodly said, "Take the prayers out of school," we said nothing. After all, why take the risk of having people upset with you, you know, saying things like, their so heavenly minded that their no earthly good. I would sooner be called that the the opposite of being so earthly minded your no heavenly good.

This brings me to the story I read about at the end of time, Satan and Jesus were gathering up the souls that served them. There was a fence running down the middle between them and several from both sides decided to sit on the fence and that way they didn't have to choose one over the other. Jesus gathered all his loved ones and took them to heaven. Satan loaded all those on his side of the fence on a bus and took off, those that sat on the fence watched all this transpire, and then said to one another, what are we going to do? When Satan come roaring up in his bus, jumped out and started to look around. One of those sitting on the fence said, "What are you looking for, it looks like you lost something." Satin said, "Oh there you's are, get on the bus," to which the fellow said, "Oh no, you see we sat on the fence, so we made neither choice." Satan said, "Aw but you did, you see I own the fence as well."

I trust this will give you a better understanding of being lukewarm.
