

#293 Why does a person go to church

church [tʃɜːtʃ]

noun

a building used for public Christian worship:

Biblical meaning: Corinthians 12:24-27 For our comely parts have no need: but God hath tempered the body together, having given more abundant honour to that part which lacked That there should be no schism in the body; but that the members should have the same care one for another. And whether one member suffer, all the members suffer with it; or one member be honoured, all the members rejoice with it.

Now ye are the body of Christ, and members in particular.

Every believer is a member of the body of Christ (the church), it was NEVER ordained of God to have all these denominational barriers of differences in HIS CHURCH. Satan started the devision back in the Apostle Paul's time, 1Corinthians 3:3-9 For ye are yet carnal: for whereas there is among you envying, and strife, and divisions, are ye not carnal, and walk as men? For while one saith, I am of Paul; and another, I am of Apollos; are ye not carnal?

Who then is Paul, and who is Apollos, but ministers by whom ye believed, even as the Lord gave to every man?

I have planted, Apollos watered; but God gave the increase. So then neither is he that planteth any thing, neither he that watereth; but God that giveth the increase.

Now he that planteth and he that watereth are one: and every man shall receive his own reward according to his own labour. For we are labourers together with God: ye are God's husbandry, ye are God's building.

And carnal man has bought into this lie of Anti-christ ever since.

A person goes to the denominational church to worship God in singing praises and offering verbal praise to our God and redeemer, BUT in the last 40 some odd years, it has gone totally down hill. Especially within the last decade.

See the dictionary meaning

worship |'wɜːʃɪp| noun

the feeling or expression of reverence and adoration for a deity: worship of God in praise or song

- religious rites constituting a formal expression of reverence for a deity:
- great admiration or devotion shown towards god:

Unfortunately this is almost impossible in most denominational assemblies today. They quit singing out of their hymnals, they at one time sang choruses that allowed the Holy Spirit to bless your spirit. Now everything is modernized, the words don't make sense, the tunes are very similar to every new chorus. It makes me think that perhaps the composers and writers of these new songs, if they are not high on drugs. It wouldn't surprise me that much, because it is hard to find a local church that ISN'T full of compromise.

Political correctness and compromise come right from the pits of hell and the devil., and our churches are full of both.

Not only the worship service but there is no Hell or correctness preached as it might offend some one. I ASK WHO IS IT BETTER TO OFFEND? "GOD"? Your call.

We used to have a blessed time in home bible studies, and these were made up of people from various denominations but in the last couple of years, the scripture in, (2Ti 4:3 For the time will come when they will not endure sound doctrine; but after their own lusts shall they heap to themselves teachers, having itching ears;) has come to life. And also 2Ti 3:5 Having a form of godliness, but denying the power thereof: from such turn away.

OF COURSE we cannot see this applying to our denomination,

fellowship |'fɛlə(ʊ)fɪp|

noun

Friendly association, especially with people who share one's interests:

The Bible and Jesus are and should be a Christians interest, but unless your talking to another person that is sold out to Jesus, you have nothing in common. When you come home from a fellowship, grieved of spirit, discouraged and downhearted, then you had better do as the scripture says (2Ti 3:5)

The biggest majority of church goers remind me of the frog that was thrown in boiling water, IT JUMPED RIGHT BACK OUT, but put in warm water then turn up the heat. It will become so comfortable it will literally boil to death and not know the difference. WHY do you think the scripture says to examine your selves.

(2Co 13:5)

Bro. Ken <http://burningbushcrusades.com/>