

I have over the years, questioned God as to am I any good to him?

By that I meant, has any souls been won to Christ through my teachings or ministry. To my knowledge I have never lead anyone to salvation on a one to one basis. As you here so many say: "I shared Jesus with them and led them in the sinners prayer".

When we were able to preach and have meetings, we always had an alter call and there were many that came to get right with God, but as I said. I have never on a one to one basis ever led anyone in the sinners prayer.

At the very beginning of my ministry, there was a word of prophesy over me that said: "There shall be many that shall come to me, through your ministry, but you shall not know thereof".

Now satan has a field day with this, as he will bring to mind the last part, "you'll not know".

Now I know the whole prophesy but one tends to forget and when you do you do get wondering, "what good am I".

Now I'm talking especially about the last 22 years as this is when I came down with this affliction of satan and have been unable to walk, speak clear or travel freely.

So I have turned to the internet and have an e-mail ministry called Food for Thought which is sent out five days a week.

Now the Food for Thought within itself, is just a quotation, but is backed up by the living word of God. Now many years ago when God directed me to go on the internet, he said he would give me the scripture to put down as it was HIS word.

Isaiah 55:11 So shall my word be that goeth forth out of my mouth: it shall not return unto me void, but it shall accomplish that which I please, and it shall prosper in the thing whereto I sent it.

We have received many e-mails from people that say God is blessing them through the Food for Thought and these bless and lift my spirit as it confirms Isaiah 55:11.

We also answer questions that are asked by individuals and post some of the answer on the website. Now these answers are given through prayer and the Holy Spirit brings the scripture and thoughts to my mind and spirit. There are those that have been taught and blessed through them, but anything that is in the will of God, satan will do his best to disrupt it. In our case the fellow that posted the stuff on the web for us, quit last February and our web has not been updated in the last six months.

I have tried to learn how to do it myself and have purchased all the latest software, I follow the instructions faithfully and it will post but where? it doesn't show on the website. I have tried to get another webmaster but so far no takers.

NOW I have said all this to share a parable vision the Lord showed me this morning after I was deeply concerned about not receiving a soul winners crown when I get to heaven.

In the vision I was in Heaven and was admiring all the soul winners crowns that I seen on Benny Hinn, Oral Roberts and many other such great men of God. When all of a sudden I seen Jesus coming down the line, carrying the most beautiful crown you could see. I was happy for the one the crown was for and was thinking who was this great person that deserved such a lovely crown.

When the Lord stopped before me and said, it is your crown.

Now I said this was a parable vision, in other words a vision to illustrate a spiritual lesson. You see, there is no way that I would receive a crown like that, but I WILL receive a crown.
